Elspeth Boxall

Hi everyone, it's Elspeth here, and I just wanted to say thank you for tuning into our podcast series.

It's been a pleasure sharing these episodes with you, and I hope you've enjoyed listening to them as much as we have enjoyed creating them.

We are taking a short break over the summer, but we will be back in the autumn with fresh new content. In the meantime, we would really appreciate your feedback on the series so far.

You'll find the link in the meeting notes, so please share your thoughts. Thanks again for listening and watch out for our new content, coming soon.
