

NHS Ayrshire & Arran Pre-Reg Year

REBECCA JARROTT

Tasks/Skills/Learning

- Pre-Reg Project
- Medicine Reconciliation
- Consultant Ward Round
- Care Planning
- Discharge Planning
- Optimising Therapy
- Identifying, addressing and resolving pharmaceutical care issues involving management and prescribing of acute and long term medicines
- Promotion and support of healthy lifestyles
- Provision of advice and support to patients
- Discussions with other healthcare professionals regarding patients pharmaceutical care
- Advising healthcare professionals on pharmaceutical issues
- Interpreting blood results, hepatic and renal function re. pharmaceutical care
- Identifying ADR/ Drug interactions
- Continually learning, gathering evidence and developing professional competence and experience applying what has been learned from prior knowledge, daily activities and formal teaching opportunities

Pre-Reg Competencies & PRPS Curriculum

Professional Effectiveness

- Manage time effectively
- Make decisions demonstrating clear and logical thought
- Take responsibility and accept outcomes of your own decisions
- Carry out tasks effectively
- Recognise and define problems and identify workable solutions
- Select best solutions based on sound analysis and evidence
- Evaluate outcome of solutions
- Check your own work effectively
- Identify and rectify your own and others mistakes
- Develop your own plans to meet identified learning needs
- Make full use of learning and development opportunities, and apply your learning to practice

Medicines and Health

- Manage the dispensing process, verify inpatient discharge and outpatient prescriptions for pharmaceutical appropriateness and accuracy check dispensed items
- Provide additional clinical and pharmaceutical services
- Provide answers to queries based on research based evidence
- Construct Medicine histories using a range of sources

Interpersonal Skills

- Communicate effectively
- Elicit all relevant information through use of appropriate questions
- Behave assertively and in a manner which instils confidence
- Provide information and advice
- Work effectively with others
- Present your own ideas and opinions
- Meet commitments within agreed deadlines
- Use your knowledge and skills when helping others learn
- Work effectively independently and in a multidisciplinary team
- Pro-actively assist patients to obtain maximum benefit from their treatment
- Actively provide information and advice to healthcare professionals

Areas

- Other
 - Primary Care
 - Community Pharmacy Cross-Sector
 - Ayrshire Hospice

Pharmacy Department

- Dispensary
- Medicines Information
- Aseptic Unit
- ICT Team
- Mental Health Team
- Primary Care Team
- University Hospital Ayr
- University Hospital Crosshouse

Hospital Wards

- SURGICAL
 - Urology
 - Orthopaedics
 - General Surgery
 - Pre-Op clinics
- MEDICAL
 - Cardiology
 - Endocrinology
 - Rheumatology
 - Stroke
 - Respiratory
 - GI
- OTHER
 - Paediatrics
 - Renal Medicine
 - Care of the Elderly
 - Antimicrobial
 - CAU (Combined Assessment Unit)
 - Emergency Department
 - Oncology
 - Intensive Care
 - High Dependency
 - Oncology
 - Out-Patient Clinics (e.g. Cardiology, Rheumatology, GI Biologics etc)

Allied Health Professionals

- Podiatrists
- Paramedics
- Physiotherapists
- Dieticians
- Occupational Therapists
- Speech and Language therapists

Hospital Team

- Junior Doctors, Middle Grade Doctors, Consultants
- Charge Nurses, Staff nurses, Advanced Nurse Practitioners, Specialist Nurses

Pharmacy Team

- Pharmacists
- Pharmacy Technicians
- Pharmacy Support Workers